1	12/5/22 10:21:29	anonymous	Guest Speaker: Ayanna "Yanni" Brumfield for Trans Awareness Month; Legal Name & Gender Marker Change Presentation; LGBTQ+ Wellness Group (ongoing every Tuesday);	Talking with other queer people and learning about their experiences	We should get a club plant :)	Any kind of slow paced event where we can just talk in a calm space
2	12/5/22 11:09:50	anonymous	National Coming Out Day (In Person Event); International Pronouns Day;	You get to know new people	I think they are pretty well organized	More dynamic events
3	12/5/22 13:10:56	anonymous	Gender Health Center Presentation; Legal Name & Gender Marker Change Presentation;	Hanging out with the community. The folks here are cool.	Maybe we should have an IT person, that way we can have an easier way to dealing with technological issues.	Just hanging out with the folks.
4	12/5/22 19:34:39	anonymous	ACE Awareness Day Talk; National Coming Out Day (In Person Event);	Group discussion and affirmations	more events during lunch rush.	talks. workshops guest speakers. crafts
5	12/5/22 22:11:02	anonymous	Transgender Awareness Month (Virtual Hangout);	The topics discussed	more interactiveness	art events
6	12/6/22 9:04:38	anonymous	Guest Speaker: Ayanna "Yanni" Brumfield for Trans Awareness Month;	group discussion	more school supplies	group events
7	12/6/22 20:20:51	anonymous	National Coming Out Day (In Person Event); ACE Awareness Day Talk; International Pronouns Day;	I didn't get to attend many events overall, so my options based on actual experience are a bit limited. However, all of these events included activities to act as creative outlets and learn more about one another as people!	generally enjoy how they are currently! My only suggestion would probably be having events more evenly spread throughout the week in order to students with varying availability to attend (most of the activities I can remember were either on Wednesdays or Thursdays), but that doesn't necessarily apply if there is voting involved to decide on major event dates.	Kinda random, but I think a poetry night might be fun!

10	12/12/22 13:51:13	anonymous	National Coming Out Day (In Person Event);UndocuQueer Mental Health Workshop;LGBTQ+ Wellness Group (ongoing every Tuesday);	I really loved the opportunity for art making and self expression at the national coming out day event. I loved the speakers at the undocuqueer mental health workshop and i found all of the information shared to be immensely valuable. And in regards to the LGBTQ+ wellness workshop, i was only able to attend once but i loved the environment and the facilitators seem really cool and do a good job of facilitating a safe space. I hope to attend it more consistently next quarter.	Perhaps sending polls for meeting times that work for more people? not necessary, but its the only suggestion i can think of since the events themselves have always been awesome	definitely the wellness group. more artsy/craftsy events (i hope the sewing/crafts circle materializes), BOOK CLUB
